

Gerald Romero

Gerald Romero Jr. is a first-generation college student born in Las Vegas, NM and raised in Albuquerque. A non-traditional learner, he began his journey as a Financial Aid work-study student at CNM, where he now serves as a Financial Aid Outreach Manager. Gerald earned four associate degrees from CNM, a BA from UNM, and an MA in Educational Administration from NMSU.

Dedicated to helping students enter or return to higher education, he is driven by a commitment to ensuring student success. Gerald aims to enhance the educational experience for all, ensuring they have the resources and guidance needed to succeed. Outside of work, he enjoys cycling, practicing martial arts, and spending time with family.